

DEFLAKER

Installed in stock preparation plants to improve stock characteristics and open the fiber flakes remained after pulping, the DEFLAKER is manufactured in different sizes (disks from 10" to 20") depending on stock characteristics and production of the plant.