

The FELT GUIDE system is designed with a linear sliding block operated by air bellows. Manufacturing features and design make the FELT GUIDE system suitable for operating in hard conditions with high working reliability.

The FELT GUIDE system is suitable for the installation of the existing roll housings or can be designed with the possibility to include the housing in the sliding block itself, is equipped with a mechanical stroke limit and can be supplied with all the necessary accessories for a proper installation.