

ROPE CUTTER

The ROPE CUTTER is used for the automatic cut of the rope made by the Ragger installed on pulpers slushing waste paper. Hydraulically operated, the ROPE CUTTER is guillotine type with tempered and hardened blades for an high efficiency cutting also in hard conditions.

The control panel is equipped with a PLC for an optimum control of the machine and can be related to the Ragger in order to cut the rope at specific length.