

WIRE COILING MACHINE A50

The WIRE COILING MACHINE A 50

is used for a rational handling of the binding wires removed from pulp bales: basically it transforms the bulky loosen wires in skeins that can be handled and discharged easily and in safety conditions, and it is supplied complete with a control panel with PLC for the complete control of the working cycle.

